Peaceful Acres - Historic Home - 28 Acres @Verona

"Spring Gully" – 28 usable, fully fenced acres with an historic home set back from the road this historic home is well positioned with ample rural land either side and the rear providing you with a feeling for exceptional country living at its best. There is a large shed near the house, and another near the workshop/storage area. There is a chook yard, vegetable gardens, fully fenced paddocks and plenty of space to run horses, plant an orchard or just have space to let the kids run freely.

The large historic home was originally called Casuarina when it was in Bega. It was moved to its current location approximately 28 years ago. Lots of coloured glass, hardwood floors, high ceilings and space for alfresco entertaining are just some of the features of this home. The veranda is on three sides of the home and has some amazing wrought iron panels. A great spot to sit back and enjoy your favourite beverage with views over your property.

Verona is a quiet rural area which is popular for people who like the country lifestyle but want to be close to Bega, Cobargo and Bermagui with its pristine beaches. Verona - country living with town convenience.

With several schools, shops, Bega hospital, Merimbula Airport only a short drive away, this location makes the perfect place for those desiring a country lifestyle yet close to everything they need.

These small acreage lifestyle properties are hard to find in the current market.
